

How to get access to SNN through Blue Stream.

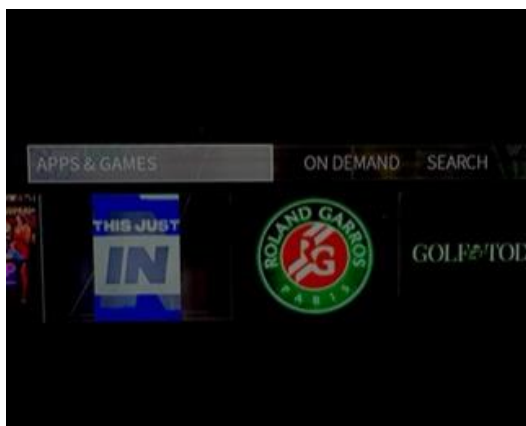

You may have gone searching for SNN in the Blue Stream channel lineup and not found it. Access to SNN is not included in The Isles contract. However, you are able to stream SNN directly to your TV. Below are the instructions to set up access to SNN.

In order to view SNN, you must first download an app called VUit. To download and install VUit, just follow the steps outlined below. Please note – you will only have to install VUit once, and there is no cost.

Go to the main TiVo screen by pushing the TiVo button on your remote. It is the large silver button in the top center. Your screen should look like this –

Next, scroll to the right to the APPS and Games tab –

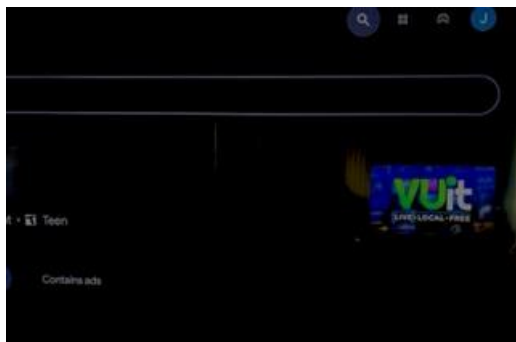

Next go to the Google Play Store -

Next step, search the Google Play Store for VUit -

Then download and install the VUit app -

Open the VUit app and search for SNN -

Sit back and enjoy -
